Students intending to pursue university, foundation courses, commercial, technical or other courses in the Mainland/ outside Hong Kong are reminded to collect in-depth information before submitting their applications. Students can access reference materials¹ on non-local further studies on the Life Planning website of Education Bureau at <http://www.edb.gov.hk/lifeplanning>. Besides, students may seek relevant information from the respective Consulates or Commissions of the countries concerned, or consulting organisations listed at the Appendix. Students are also advised to stay vigilant while submitting applications for admission, especially when it involves depositing a large amount of down-payment as registration or tuition fees.

3. At present, the only organisations authorised to provide immigration facilities to enter the Mainland/places outside Hong Kong are China Travel

Students should note that even if a visa is granted after making a payment to the travel agencies or other agencies, it does not imply that there is any connection between the two parties. Therefore, students should not get misled to believe that places of overseas education programmes or courses in the Mainland are secured after making payments to such agencies, or they have to bear the risks and loss so incurred.
